

ON THE COVER:

15 years ago, in 1993, International Chimney president, Rick Lohr, Expert House Movers of Maryland president, Jerry Matyiko, Friesen Consulting president, Pete Friesen and a host of dozens had just completed a successful move of the Block Island Lighthouse in Rhode Island. Rick Lohr's next action was traveling to Nantucket, Massachusetts to meet with individuals interested in relocating the historic Sankaty Head Lighthouse. "Moving the Sankaty", said Lohr "has been the longest project from planning to completion with which I have ever been involved. The people we worked with at Nantucket were just marvelous," said Lohr. For a detailed description of the move by International Chimney and Expert House Movers of Maryland turn to page 26.
