

Houses to go!

Structural Moving From Houses to Train Depots, to Bridges in Northern and Central Illinois

By Lee Brooke & Marcy Kubat

“The remarkable exploits of structural movers across three centuries... from a Frank Lloyd Wright Tennis Club to a home where Ernest Hemingway lived; from the U505 German submarine to a 76-foot Viking ship to a light-house; from small homes to entire communities.”
