Why participate?

To aid the International Association of Structural Movers (IASM) Legal & Utilities Fund and Scholarships Committees raise necessary income for future legal battles.

Why is it necessary?

Legal and utility problems and costs are among the most disruptive and expensive items that face structural movers. Lack of uniform standards in the cable, electrical and telegraphic industries cause unreasonable and unnecessary costs for movers and customers alike. Individual structural movers simply do not have enough clout to positively affect any outcome. While the structural moving industry is, by its nature, a small niche market, IASM is the only official trade organization representing the industry. In order for the association to effectively confront certain unfair situations that face the industry from time to time a substantial monetary fund must be accumulated.

D. Michael Blake, Chair, Legal & Utilities Committee and Thomas F. Doyle, Chair, Scholarship Committees are co-chairing this fundraising effort, with approval of the Association Directors, in order to primarily secure additional funds for legal and utility efforts in the future.

What $ amount does the Association hope to reach?

The plan is to sell 1,000 chances for $100.00 each, grossing $100,000.00. The prize is estimated to be
